DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-20 are pending. Claims 1-4, 8-10, 12, 13, and 17-20 have been amended in this communication filed 8/27/07 entered as Response After Non-Final Action.
2. The Request For Extension of Time filed 8/24/07 has been entered.
3. The IDSs filed 8/18/07 and 9/22/07 have been entered and considered.
4. The 35 USC 112, second paragraph rejections for claims 1-4, 8-10, 12, 13, and 17-20 have been overcome by Applicants' amendments and explanations and are hereby withdrawn.
5. As a Preliminary matter, the Examiner does not find the book or any pages from the book entitled "Sales Promotions: Concepts, Methods and Strategies" by R. Blattberg, S. Neslin, Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey: Prentice Hall, 1990 mentioned on page 12 in the response to the Office Action dated March 20, 2007. Applicants' are respectfully requested to submit the book or the relevant pages from the book for the Examiner's review.
6. After a discussion with another Primary Examiner, a restriction has been found in the application as set forth here below.

Election/Restrictions

7. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1 and 2, drawn to a method for receiving the sales data, cleansing the sales data, generating imputed variables by imputing at least one missing data point, receiving cost data, estimating cost per unit of product, and outputting the estimated cost per unit of product to the optimization engine, classified in class 705, subclass 10.

- II. Claims 3-20, drawn to an apparatus for modeling costs with an econometric engine for receiving sales data and a financial engine for receiving imputed variables from the econometric engine, receiving the cost data from the merchandise store, generating a cost model, classified in class 705, subclass 35.

Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another and materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case Invention I can be used in any on-line inventory environment or retail sales environment that requires the estimating of the cost per unit of product and determining the cost per unit of product. Invention II can be used in any economic environment where prices need to be known and inventory tracked for merchandise. For example, any retail store environment whether it is on-line or in a brick building. This is known as business economics.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicants' are advised that the reply to this requirement to be completed must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
